Henrik Blomé new Partner at Alder

Alder Fund I AB ("Alder") is pleased to announce that Henrik Blomé will join the firm as a Partner as of September 2017. Henrik Blomé, 43 years old, has more than 15 years of experience from Private Equity investments in the Nordic countries. Most recently Henrik was Deputy CEO and Investment Director at Ratos AB, a publicly listed Private Equity company, that Henrik joined in 2001. Henrik brings additional extensive experience to Alder from private equity transactions and from active ownership. At Ratos Henrik has led several successful investments within Alder's core geographical markets and within industry sectors that are relevant for Alder. Prior to Ratos, Henrik worked as a management consultant at Bain & Company. He studied at Stockholm School of Economics.

Henrik Blomé will join the partners of Alder, Dag Broman, Henrik Flygar, Jonas Frick and Thomas Nilsson, to continue to drive the value creation in the current portfolio and to further grow the firm within its market.

"The addition of a highly accomplished partner, Henrik Blomé, to the Alder team is an important event in the development of the Alder investing platform. His knowledge and experience complement and strengthen the existing team and his inclusion in the team will also be an important factor in ensuring long-term continuity in the leadership of Alder. We welcome Henrik and much look forward to working together in a well-functioning partnership for the benefit of our investors, portfolio companies and the whole Alder team" says Thomas Nilsson, Partner and Chairman of Alder.

"I am excited to join my new partners and colleagues at Alder and am looking forward to working with the team to continue developing and building Alder. Alder focuses on a market niche that, I believe, will offer good potential for attractive investments and I believe that the team and the culture of the firm is a great fit for myself" says Henrik Blomé.
